

2017 Volunteer of the Year Nomination

Volunteers should be recognized and their contributions to Scouting made known to others.

Marin Council wants to recognize one outstanding volunteer from each pack, troop, and crew in the council.

Selection Process

The process for selecting your unit Volunteer of the Year is simple. The committee chair, in consultation with other leaders, selects one individual who made an outstanding contribution to the unit during the year. You might want to recognize someone who first stepped forward to help the unit or maybe someone whose outstanding efforts continued throughout the year. The recipient can be a uniformed leader, such as a den leader or an assistant Scoutmaster, or it can be a committee member. Only one volunteer from each unit can be recognized.

The selected individual will be recognized at the annual Marin Council Recognition Dinner. Be sure the person you want to honor attends the dinner along with members from your unit to support your honoree.

Fill out the form and return it to the council office no later than Friday, January 6, 2018. No late submissions will be considered. Use only space provided. Do not attach extra sheets.
